Day 1

Arrival at Hosea Kutako International Airport where you will be met. Arrival needs to be early in the morning. Swakopmund is much loved by Namibians as a welcome respite from the heat in the interior. It is also popular amongst visitors because of its old-world charm and relaxed atmosphere. Founded 1892 during the period of German colonial rule, it served as the territory's main harbour for many years.

Day 4

Today you travel via Outjo to Etosha Safari Camp. If time permits, you will drive to Etosha to view some animals. The Etosha National Park was proclaimed as Namibia's first conservation area in 1907 by the then German government. At that stage it covered a vast area of 93 240 km² and was the largest game reserve in the world. Today the Etosha National Park covers an area of 22 270 km² and is still one of the largest game reserves in Africa.
