Day 1

Welcome to Namibia, we hope you had a pleasant flight. You will be met by a Drongo Tours representative who will assist you with collection of the vehicle before you continue to Windhoek. The remainder of the day is spent at leisure.

- Lunch: Not included – for your own account
Dinner: Not included – for your own account
B/B: Safari Hotel – Business rooms (or similar)

Day 2

You depart from Windhoek via Rehoboth to the Kalahari Desert. At Kalahari Anib Lodge you find yellow grass and green acacias on red sand under brilliant skies. The Kalahari is the largest expanse of sand on earth and a photographer's paradise. 100 km² Gondwana Kalahari Park owes its magical quality to its scenery, fauna and flora. The afternoon is spent at leisure. You can participate in the activities offered by the lodge (not included – for your own account).

- Lunch: Not included – for your own account
D/B/B: Kalahari Anib Lodge (or similar)

Day 3

After breakfast you will depart via Mariental and Maltahöhe to Sossusvlei. The rest of the afternoon is spent at leisure.

- Lunch: Not included – for your own account
D/B/B: Desert Camp (or similar)

Day 4

You will have a very early start today, which will be rewarded by the magnificent views of the sun rising over the dunes of Sossusvlei. The highlight in the Southern Region is Sossusvlei with its monumental dunes, the highest of which is estimated to be 325m. At the entry to Sossusvlei is Sesriem Canyon, where centuries of erosion have incised a narrow gorge about 1km in length. At the foot of the gorge, which plunges down 30 to 40 m, are pools of water, which become replenished after good rains.

- Lunch: Not included – for your own account
D/B/B: Desert Camp (or similar)

Day 5

Today you will continue via the Namib Naukluft Park to Walvis Bay. The definitive feature of this region, the Namib Desert, is known for the unusual beauty of its landscape. The Namib Naukluft Park changes from expansive gravel plains to vast dune seas, rugged canyons with towering walls of volcanic rock and distant mountain ranges.

Dinner: Not included – for your own account
B/B: Protea Pelican Bay Hotel (or similar)

Day 6

The Pelican Point Kayaking tour starts at 7h45 at the office at the Waterfront in Walvis Bay. We will take you in our 4x4 vehicle on a scenic drive along the Walvis Bay Lagoon and the salt mines to Pelican Point. We stop along the way to take pictures and of our countless flamingos, pelicans, and great variety of other birds and wildlife. After approx. one hour we reach Pelican Point where we will get our Kayaks ready for paddling. Pelican Point is home to up to 50.000 Cape Fur Seals all year round. They are very friendly and playful and not scared of our Kayaks, even when we paddle right next to them. The seals are inquisitive and often come within touching distance of our Kayaks. We stay on the protected side of the peninsula. We spend around 2 hours on the ocean, depending on general weather conditions. After Kayaking, we recharge during breakfast with some fresh rolls and coffee and tea, before we head back to Walvis Bay. Return time is between 12h00 and 12h30. The remainder of the day is spent at leisure.
